5 BED BEACHFRONT HOME ON THE EAST COAST - SEASCAPE, ST. JOHN

Set along the peaceful shores of Bath Beach, Seascape is a delightful five-bedroom beachfront residence offering uninterrupted ocean views and the cooling breezes that define Barbados' unspoiled East Coast. This versatile property is the ideal escape for nature lovers, families, or investors seeking a serene coastal retreat with income potential.

Spread across two self-contained levels, Seascape is designed for flexibility. The ground floor includes two bedrooms and a fully equipped kitchen, while the upper level features three bedrooms, a second kitchen, and a spacious sea-facing patio—perfect for al fresco dining, lounging, or simply enjoying the stunning panorama.

With a smart layout, the home can function as one large residence or be easily split into two independent units, making it ideal for holiday rentals or accommodating extended family.

Set on approximately 8,800 sq. ft. of prime beachfront land, the property enjoys direct access to one of the island's most scenic hiking trails, which winds its way from Bath Beach to Bathsheba and Cattlewash, following the historic route of the former railway that once connected Bridgetown to Belleplaine.

Key Features:

- 5 bedrooms, 2 kitchens, and flexible dual-level design
- Expansive oceanfront patio with panoramic views
- Steps from calm swimming spots and lush nature trails
- Income-generating potential as a vacation rental
- Located in a quiet, authentic Bajan coastal village

Whether you're seeking a peaceful personal haven or a charming investment on Barbados's untouched East Coast, Seascape embodies the essence of barefoot beachfront living.
