Description

A spacious split level, open plan attractively furnished air conditioned 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom apartment in the desirable neighbourhood of Gibbs Hill, St Peter close to some of the island's best beaches.

This apartment is situated in a quiet cul-de-sac and in a small and peaceful private community boasting cool tropical breezes year round.

One enters through a spacious covered patio with a built in bar-b-q. and small home gym.

Directly in front the entrance door and beyond the living area of the apartment they are large doors that open up onto a smaller covered patio and enclosed garden with panoramic country views.

To the right is a charming master suite which also opens up to the private garden with the panoramic view of the rolling countryside hills.

To the left is a quaint kitchen with a door that leads to a shared laundry room with washer/dryer and storage area.

Adjacent to the kitchen is a small staircase that takes up you the second bedroom and bathroom.

This apartment is offered completely furnished down to the linens and crockery.

It is offered for long term rental and is ideal for a single person or young couple coming to work in Barbados or in deciding if they should permanently settle here.

The rental rate includes all utilities other than electricity as well as maid service twice weekly including laundry service.
