Description

Ridgeview Estate is a development of townhouses situated in a private gated community with a country feel yet within close proximity of the south coast, the capital of Bridgetown and Grantley Adams International Airport. Townhouse number 14 is a beautifully finished and has been upgraded to give it a fresh, modern feel. On entering the foyer, the powder room is located on the left with a staircase on the right leading to the 3 bedrooms. The foyer flows into the open plan living/dining area and into the kitchen which is fitted with lots of cupboard and cabinet space, a fridge/freezer, stove and washer. The outside, south-facing covered patio can be accessed via French doors from the living area and looks onto the plunge pool and garden area which is ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Upstairs, the master bedroom is air-conditioned and spacious with his and hers built in closets and French doors leading onto the balcony. The en-suite bathroom has a large shower and two wooden vanities with vessel sinks. The second and third bathrooms are also air-conditioned with large built-in closets and the second bedroom has the added bonus of a built-in dresser with mirror. These bedrooms share the second bathroom which is located between the two rooms. It is tiled in blue mosaic with a single vessel vanity and large shower. Residents of Ridgeview Estate can enjoy the communal swimming pool and club house which can be used for private functions as well as the use of the tennis court and children's playground.
