Description

South Ridge Development Land is a large residential site comprising 16.77 acres. The development already has planning permission for the subdivision into 35 lots, some of which may benefit from distant sea views.

The property is located in the mature and sought-after South Ridge community and is within close proximity to several amenities and business districts on the south coast. Its proximity to the highway also provides easy transportation links to the east and west of the island.

The infrastructure for the development has already been completed with roads, electricity and water in place. Great investment opportunity!
