

SEASIDE COTTAGE C, INCHCAPE VILLAS

Seaside Cottage C - The Haleconia Suite

The Seaside-Cottages , can be considered a fine example of a beautifully designed and finished West Indian style apartment. While all three Seaside Cottages stretch over two floors, have a loft bedroom, a living room, kitchen and bathroom downstairs, they vary slightly in their layout.

A bar type kitchen counter with bar stools splits the kitchen from the living area and provides for one of the dining options. The Seaside Cottage C really shows that it has been designed by a professor for film architecture. It s finesse in layout would be hard to beat. Truly unique is the catwalk which leads from the upstairs loft bedroom to an open air terrace with ocean view to the east and to the west.

A table, chairs and lounge chairs make this terrace a perfect setting to watch the sun rise in the east and watch the beautiful colors in the sky when the sun sets to the west over the Caribbean Sea. It can also be the perfect setting for a romantic candle light dinner under the stars.

The Seaside Cottage C has another terrace area with ocean view in a tropical garden setting which complements the living room for an open air living and a cosy setting for breakfast lunch and dinner. All windows are traditional and generous in size and allow views of the ocean from the living- and bedrooms. The cottages are framed by a natural garden of tropical plants and trees and the view from it s terraces is breathtaking and unobstructed. The interior is finished very upmarket and presents itself in an elegant but very Caribbean style, another reason why these units also cater to those who can appreciate architectural finesse which combined the mix of old and new perfectly.

The bedroom in this Seaside Cottage is equipped with a queen size beds. A third person can be accommodated on the sleeping couch in the living area, but as the unit is an all open design from the floor to the ceiling, the ideal occupancy is 2 persons.

A property manger is there to assist to make our guests stay a most memorable one.

Amenities to mention are complementary high speed wireless internet access, satellite-tv, stereo systems with ipod / iphone docks, optional private tel./cell phones, complete info on restaurants, supermarkets, shopping, personalized airport pick up/drop, taxi service, rental car arrangements, free on site parking, just to mention some of Inchcape s features.

The beach at House Seaside is heaven for swimming and snorkeling, windsurfing and kitesurfing, surfing and boogie boarding alike. One side of Silver Sands Beach can have a little shore beak while the other side is much calmer and ideal for swimming and sea bathing.

The small fishing village of Oistins is just a few minutes away and there are plenty of restaurants and supermarkets from in walking distance to just minutes away by car.
