

FRERE PILGRIM, NO. 36

Christ Church, Barbados

Nestled on 2 acres of flat land, this two story 5-bedroom, 4.5-bathroom house is ideally suited for a large family. The lower level comprises of a dining room with a powder room just off to its side and a separate large living room. Sliding glass doors open up from both the dining room and the living room onto a covered patio at the front of the house, making them the main entrance. A hallway leads to a small home office area, the kitchen and to two en-suite bedrooms, both with walk-in closets.

The upper level is accessed via a stairway situated off of the kitchen. It comprises of an open plan dining room and kitchen along with a separate entertainment room. Sliding glass doors open up to the large patio with beautiful views, which is great for entertaining family and guests. An external stairway leads to a large roof deck, providing spectacular views and another area for entertaining. There are an additional three bedrooms on this level, one of which is en-suite with a walk-in closet. The other two bedrooms share a bathroom. All three bedrooms have their own private patio. The large fully enclosed grounds contain a mixture of lawns, plants, mature trees and numerous fruit trees. There is an external storeroom and a car port. Located in the quiet residential/agricultural development of Frere Pilgrim, this property is within close driving distance to Oistins and Grantley Adams International Airport. This property needs a little TLC to return it to its beautiful state.
