

BOW BELLS ESTATES

Christ Church, Barbados

Bow Bells Estates is a new and impressive development located on a ridge on the southern tip of Barbados in Christ Church. It lies just 300 yards from the ocean and adjacent to the very desirable residential community of Atlantic Shores.

Situated in a very cool and breezy area, several lots offer ocean views and they vary in sizes and come complete with underground services within a controlled access environment. There are covenants in place to ensure a high quality of living is maintained by all home owners as one will expect from such an exclusive development.

It is conveniently located just minutes away from lovely beaches including Silver Sands beach to the east and the ever popular Miami Beach to the west. All south coast amenities are accessible just a short drive away. These include, supermarkets, banks, restaurants & bars, convenience stores, shopping, a gym, a medical clinic, pharmacies and of course the fishing village of Oistins, where you can enjoy a delicious "fish fry." Further to the west there is 'The Gap', where you will find an abundance of restaurants, bars and nightlife.

Lot 7 is affordably priced at $212,300.00.
