

CRESCENT DRIVE 19

Barbados

Bridgecot is a desirable residential neighbourhood close to Market Hill and Cottage. It is centrally located about 10 minutes drive from Warrens and the ABC highway. The area is breezy and peaceful with countryside views. Situated in an elevated position the setting is at the end of a private cul-de-sac. This home could be used as a family residence with an income (from the two bedroom apartment) or as two units, one for the family and the other for the grandparents or teenagers. The property has many possibilities. Four bedrooms and three bathrooms are in the upstairs of the home along with an open concept living/dining area that has access to 2 patios one the East and the other on the West. The 2 bedroom 1 bathroom apartment on the ground floor has ample living area and, as previously mentioned, it is good source of additional income if rented. The main area of the home is on one level with an open plan living/dining area off the main patio giving an feeling of space.
