PEGWELL LAND

Christ Church, Barbados

This large plot of land of just under 2 acres once was home to Pegwell House, a large plantation style home built over 100 years ago. In recent years, the property was operating as a retirement home before being demolished. The large mahogany and flamboyant trees are the only remainders. Standing on the foundation that is left, once can see south to the ocean, so building a property with a second level would be ideal. Situated on Highway 7, not far from Oistins and Miami Beach, this land is well located for a variety of purposes. Currently zoned as residential, it should not be a problem to get a change of use to commercial.
