Saint Michael, Barbados

For Sale – Galviston, Strathclyde is a charming traditional Barbadian style home located just outside of Bridgetown. This expansive home is set over 2 storeys and features 3-bedrooms in the main house as well as a full self-contained 1-bedroom cottage.

The building sits on one of the few double lots within Strathclyde with over 17,000 square feet of prime real estate perfect for residential, commercial or development purposes. The grounds of the property are well maintained and benefit from many mature trees which provide shade and natural cooling for the home. The main entrance to the house has a large, paved driveway with garage and storage below the cottage.

With its ideal location just minutes outside of Bridgetown and Warrens Galviston offers value for both commercial and residential buyers. The neighbourhood is well established with both residences and many prominent doctors and lawyers' offices. This home would also be an excellent property to use as a home with an onsite office for a private doctor or small law firm.
