

THE CRAG, APES HILL, ST. ANDREW, BARBADOS

The Crag commands an elevated position along the St. Andrew Ridge of Apes Hill and offers commanding ocean views in a private tropical setting. This wonderful property benefits from complete privacy due to its location and expansive gardens and tree coverage.

Rebuilt in 1997 in traditional Bajan style with an indoor/outdoor terrace and dining area which sits above the tops of tropical trees and is accented by dramatic and exotic views both into the colourful garden surrounding the property and views southward and westward to the Caribbean Sea.

The entry level comprises a foyer, kitchen and open plan living area leading out onto an ample terrace with a swimming pool. Also, on this level are a bedroom and small study. On the first floor are two additional bedrooms, one of which is the master suite, enjoying views of the tropical vegetation. The lower level, consisting of a basement and laundry area which completes this inviting home.

The house overlooks one of Barbados's natural gullies at tree top level and captures the lush green atmosphere. On the boundary of St. James, the property has one of the world's most dramatic golf courses as its neighbour. While the house itself is totally private, it is less than ten minutes' drive from the amenities of Holetown and the luxurious west coast beaches. The high elevation ensures a constant 'trade wind' breeze. The Crag is a home that needs to be seen.
