

VILLA ANTHENA

 Saint James, Barbados

Villa Anthena is an elegant five-bedroom luxury villa occupying a prime ridge front position at Carlton View, St. James, with spectacular 180-degree West Coast views. This beautifully designed 5,000 sq. ft. villa's impressive entrance hall welcomes you with an open view through the home and out to the Caribbean Sea. The main lounge and sitting room, modern kitchen and master suite are located on the western side of the villa, and open to an expansive covered terrace with stunning sea views beyond the infinity pool and sun deck. On the eastern side of the villa are three additional bedrooms, two of which have private patios leading to the garden. Additional accommodation is provided by a charming self-contained apartment on the lower level.

Villa Anthena's attractive interior features include marble tiles throughout, complemented by stone pillars, coral rendering and high tray ceilings. The fully enclosed property with electronic entrance gate consists of just over half an acre of well landscaped tropical gardens. This gem of an offering is ideally situated halfway between Holetown and Speightstown, a short drive from beaches, shopping, golf and more.
