

KABAKALLI #5

 Christ Church, Barbados

Upper one bedroom, one bathroom apartment with ventilated high ceilings offering a lovely view of the ocean and in walking distance to beaches. The covered balcony has a bank of eastern facing push out windows that bring cooling breezes to this cute beach style condominiums chilled out ambiance. The kitchen is open plan and faces into the living room with an unobstructed view out to the balcony and the ocean. The bathroom is located in the corridor on the way to the bedroom. There are many windows throughout the unit which make for a cool environment. There is an additional attic storage space along with a linen closet in the corridor just outside of the bathroom. The wood used in the unit and on the building is Kabakalli, which is an impervious wood from South America. And, best of all, the monthly condo fees are low and affordable. Silver Sands is the windsurfing and kite surfing capital of the island and has a seriously relaxed beach vibe. Leave the car at the property and take morning walks along with beaches and cliff edges all the way to Inch Marlow, while watching the kite surfers soar in the air above the waters. Surfers Bay Bar is just around the corner from the unit and offers live entertainment and bonfires during the busy tourist season and is a great place to watch the sunset at the end of the day. This unit is being sold furnished.
