NEWBURY CRESCENT

 Saint George, Barbados

View Video Below

This property sits in a prime spot on a corner lot at the entrance of the neighbourhood. The main entrance leads into an open plan living & family area via the patio as well as the formal dining room, (which is also accessible via the garage). The kitchen is well laid out with ample cupboard and counter space. There are A/C units in the living and dining areas.

There is a powder room adjoining the dining area. There is a laundry with an external entrance.

Along the hallway there are two bedrooms which share a bathroom with shower. Towards the rear of the property is the master bedroom which is quite spacious. It has a vanity which rests under a skylight, perfect for giving the ladies the natural light that they need to apply their makeup and get perfected. There is a walk-in closet which leads into the master bedroom. All bedrooms are outfitted with A/C.

The property has ceramic tiles, casement windows and security enclosures. The backyard has several plants & trees including plaintain, mango, golden apple, peas and ginger.
