

BRIAR HALL 6

 Christ Church, Barbados

Lovely home split into 3 studio apartments in a convenient location. Briar Hall is a residential neighborhood near many amenities and providing easy access to the highway with only a 10 minute drive to Maxwell Beach and Oistins respectively.

The upstairs apartment is where the current owner resided. It has 1 single bedroom and 1 bathroom. The open plan living space is currently divided with furniture to create another room for a double bed but can easily be opened up to allow for a larger living space. The open plan kitchen and living area is separated by a breakfast bar and opens out onto a large breezy balcony with views over looking the south coast to the ocean.

Downstairs has 2 studio apartments that were rented out for US$500 per month each. The apartments have their own kitchenette and bathroom with an open plan living and sleeping area.

The property is fully enclosed with a good sized garden including a tool shed and space for parking on the driveway. There is a Laundry closet at the side of the house under the stairs containing a washer. All furniture shown to be sold with the house.
