

SECLUSION GREAT HOUSE

Saint Michael, Barbados

Seclusion Great House, an old former plantation house is a two and a half-story property, 5 bedroom, 2 1/2 bathroom house, situated on a rectangular shaped one acre parcel of land (43,560 sq. ft.) comprising 2 lots, that is fully enclosed by a concrete guard wall. The area is well established and is zoned for both residential and commercial use, with easy access to a wide range of amenities and facilities along Highway 1. The surrounding buildings are made up of buildings constructed of coral stone, concrete blocks, timber and wall and timber houses.

The grounds are extensive with a swimming pool, an outdoor structure with two toilets and a standalone garage. There are a couple of fruit trees and an old above ground water tank, and an old fountain.

The property entrance is through iron gates and a long driveway. Access to the ground floor is up a short flight of stairs onto a patio, that leads into an extremely large living room.
