

COVE SPRING HOUSE

Cove Spring House is one of a kind and is the sort of house that usually only exists in dreams, where the Caribbean setting is perfect and the property is so luxurious, it's to die for!

Perfect for that special holiday for whatever reason, from family reunions to lavishly entertaining or quietly enjoying your privacy as several well-known faces have in the past. Up to 20 guests can be accommodated in 10 magnificent en suite bedrooms, as there are 7 rooms in the main house and 3 rooms in the adjacent cottage

The House nestles on an oceanfront bluff with steps down to a secluded pink sandy beach where the usually calm and translucent Caribbean Sea will bathe and lap at your feet on the West Coast of Barbados.

The architecture is classical 19th century Caribbean style, built from the island's hand hewn, creamy Coral stone. Inside is complimented and adorned with period pieces, interior designs and features throughout from designers such as Ralph Laure and photography from Terry O'Neill.

The bedrooms in the main house are all beautifully designed and are very large, with equally large bathrooms, all air conditioned and fully equipped with Cable Televisions, Video, CD/DVD, each with its own safe, hairdryer and direct dial telephone.

There is a state of the art 20-seat cinema with a 133" screen, surround sound and 200 DVD's to choose from. For the exercise conscious there is a fully equipped Gym with the latest Precor 2 equipment.

Watersports, Golf and Tennis are all nearby and can be arranged at your discretion. Massages, reflexology and other treatments can be done at the house or at a nearby hotel or spa.

A free form pool and Jacuzzi is located on a large oceanfront patio overlooking the sea with plenty of sun loungers and umbrellas for a restful day.
