

PORT ST. CHARLES NO. 127

Step inside to the next place you can call home. Once inside you are greeted by recently redecorated and new furnishings that create an atmosphere of informal luxury, a haven overlooking the tranquil waters of the lagoon. The living room, with its heavenly view of the aquamarine water, leads onto the terrace, which provides a delightful area for outdoor dining, or enjoying a few laughs and many memories with family and friends, around the bar, or in the plunge pool, just steps away from the water's edge, with views of the beautiful waters of the lagoon.

The well-appointed and highly decorated kitchen is designed for easy living and casual meals, with an open counter area.

Residents can enjoy a choice of air-conditioning, ceiling fans or the cooling Trade Winds that blow through the apartment.

Full laundry facilities are tucked neatly away, and this apartment has no shortage of requirements for storage.

There are three ensuite bedrooms, with the master being on the very top floor. The spacious master bedroom is beautifully decorated, with a large bathroom with both a tub and shower, and plenty of built in cupboards and storage. This bedroom also has an additional room opposite that can be used as an office/study.

The second and third bedrooms are both equally spacious with separate ensuite bathrooms, again with plenty of storage and walk in cupboards, one of these bedrooms has its own enclosed veranda that allows the tropical breezes to pass through, and overlooks the lagoon.
