

ROYAL WESTMORELAND - MANGO WALK

This stunning and luxuriously appointed villa is situated in the exclusive Royal Westmoreland Golf development on the West Coast of Barbados.

A long driveway, lined with mature gardens, leads to an Italian fountain and several cascading water features at the entrance to the villa. You are greeted by an impressive open-air courtyard as you enter Mango Walk.

The inside of this impeccably furnished villa is just as beautiful as the grounds. The floor to ceiling glass French doors that surround the villa, gives way to the indoor/outdoor living concept, and allows light to flow throughout. The open plan kitchen, stunning formal dining room and living room all lead onto a beautiful pool terrace. A large bar is set up in the lounge and opens onto the pool deck as well.

A large infinity pool (one of the largest private pools on Royal Westmoreland) overlooks the lush gardens, Royal Westmoreland's golf courses and distant sea views. In the garden below, a very tranquil and private gazebo with a six-seater dining table, great for outdoor dining and entertaining, is ideally placed.

Each bedroom is spacious. Three of the five bedrooms are situated on the ground floor. On the lower ground level there is a full entertainment room equipped with pool table, table football, table tennis and air hockey. In addition to this there is a fully equipped gym. There's also another en-suite bedroom on this level suitable for guests who may be traveling with their own staff (such as a nanny or pilot) or equally for teenage children. This level also features a large cinema room with a 100-inch television. To complement this leisure space there is a conveniently situated bar.

A separate fully equipped 1 bedroom cottage, with its own private terrace, that looks onto the tranquil gardens and is located just outside the main house.

The master suite is not included in the rental.
