

FOSTERS HOUSE

Fosters House is a luxurious and stylishly furnished beachfront villa ideally located on one of the Best beaches in Barbados. This wonderful villa provides the perfect setting to escape from the outside world and truly enjoy your holiday.

Fosters House features five air-conditioned bedrooms, all of which have bathrooms ensuite. Four are located on the upper floor of the property and one on the ground floor. All upstairs bedrooms have their own private ocean facing balconies and offer beautiful views of the Caribbean Sea, ideal for enjoying a book and your morning coffee before heading down for breakfast prepared by your personal cook. The downstairs bedroom leads right out to the pool area making this room very suitable for those who cannot climb stairs.

The main floor contains the spacious open plan living and dining room, which is airconditioned for additional comfort. The living room flows out to the covered patio and pool deck where there is another dining area, perfect for enjoying sunsets and canapes.

The pool deck of Fosters House is designed to take in every inch of the stunning view. Its elevated position provides privacy from persons walking by on the beach and allows for uninterrupted views of the coral-sand beach and turquoise ocean.

The property also features an airconditioned room with a Peloton Bike for those who wish to stay fit while on vacation.

This villa is also just minutes away from all the amenities in Holetown such as Duty-Free shopping at Lime Grove Lifestyle Centre, dining at Barbados' top restaurants such as Tides and The Mews.
