

THE ATLANTIS HISTORIC INN

 Saint Joseph, Barbados

The Atlantis Historic Inn is a boutique hotel located in the peaceful countryside of the east of the island. Standing firm from 1883 it is one of the first hotels built on the east coast as it overlooks the soup bowl were international surfers visits yearly to catch the impressive waves.

The hotel boasts of 8 large en-suite bedrooms in the hotel and two 2-bedroom units pool side. Tranquility perfectly sums of the hotel as it is the ideal location for a romantic getaway or a simple good ole country stay. With recent renovation in 2009 this hotel still competes with others as it is rich in history with a taste of modern flare. The rustic chic ambiance hosts 200 in its indoor and outdoor restaurants is perfect for savvy investors seeking a serene investment and home away from home overlooking surfer's paradise with this turn-key hotel.
