

FAIRFIELD HOUSE, ST. PHILIP

 Saint Philip, Barbados

Situated in the tranquil neighborhood of Fairfield, St. Philip, this charming plantation-style property features a spacious main house, separate cottage, and a cozy studio loft apartment, perfectly suited for family living or investment opportunities.

The main house boasts a generous two-storey layout with an inviting L-shaped covered patio that looks out to the lush surroundings, separate formal living and dining rooms that create an ideal space for entertaining guests. The kitchen offers ample storage. A cozy TV room provides a comfortable space for family gatherings, while a convenient laundry room and a full bathroom on the ground floor enhance daily living. The upper level offers four spacious bedrooms, each offering natural light and potential for customization. A shared bathroom completes the upper level, catering to the needs of family and guests alike.

In addition to the main house, the property includes a separate one-bedroom, one-bathroom cottage, perfect for visitors or as a rental unit. The studio loft apartment adds versatility, making it an ideal space for a home office, studio, or additional guest accommodation.

Sitting on an expansive lot of approximately 6.8 acres, this property offers ample land suitable for agricultural pursuits, allowing for gardening or farming opportunities right at your doorstep. While the property requires renovation and upgrades, it presents a fantastic canvas for those looking to realize their vision of a dream home or investment venture in a peaceful setting.

Fairfield Plantation is within 10 minutes' drive of the rapidly developing Six Roads area with its numerous amenities.
