Description

Driftwood is a pretty 3 bedroom Barbadian house, built in a colonial style and surrounded by a mature tropical garden. It is few minutes walk from Cotton Bay and Miami Beach which are well loved by families and surfers alike. There are polished wooden floors in the main living area and ceiling fans in every bedroom. The house is made of a tropical hardwood called Greenheart which keeps the house cool on the hottest days. Towels and linen are included and there is a weekly maid service which can be upgraded to two or three times a week if the guests prefer. Guests are asked to bring their own beach towels. Summer rate $150 USD/night, Winter rate $175

USD/night. There is a 3 night minimum stay at this property. We have recently installed air-conditioning in all the bedrooms at Driftwood as an optional extra - cost 10$US per unit per day (all three units - 25$US per day) The bedrooms all have ceiling fans, which many guests prefer to use - the AC option will be up to each individual guest. The house is suitable for children as it has a large enclosed garden with many places for them to play. N.B: Room tax of 10% is applicable
